SONG LYRICS

CHASING THE NIGHT

*Trouble starts when I come around
Everything's painted red when I'm in town
Light me up and watch me burn it down
If you're anointing a devil, I'll take my crown*

*Foot on the gas, add fuel to the fire
I'm already high and going higher
Charging faster, ready to ignite
Headed for disaster, chasing the night*

*You turn wrong when you turn right
White light at first sight
Oh, you're chasing the night
But it's a nightmare chasing you*

*Life's coming to me in flashes
Wearing my bruises like badges
Don't know when I learned to play with matches
Must want it all to end in ashes*

*Foot on the gas, add fuel to the fire
I'm already high and going higher
Charging faster, ready to ignite
Headed for disaster, chasing the night*

*You turn wrong when you turn right
White light at first sight
Oh, you're chasing the night
But it's a nightmare chasing you*

*Foot on the gas, add fuel to the fire
I'm already high and going higher
Foot on the gas, add fuel to the fire
Look me in the eye and flick the lighter*

*Oh, you're chasing the night
But it's a nightmare, honey, chasing you*

THIS COULD GET UGLY

*The ugly you got in you
Well, I got it, too
You act like you ain't got a clue
But you do
Oh, we could be lovely
If this could get ugly*

*Write a list of things you'll regret
I'd be on top smoking a cigarette
Oh, we could be lovely
If this could get ugly*

*The things you run from, baby, I run to
And I know it scares you through and through
No one knows you like I do
Try to tell me that ain't true
Oh, we could be lovely
If this could get ugly*

*C'mon now, honey
Let yourself think about it
Can you really live without it?*

*Oh, we could be lovely
If this could get ugly*

IMPOSSIBLE WOMAN

*Impossible woman
Let her hold you
Let her ease your soul*

*Sand through fingers
Wild horse, but she's just a colt*

*Dancing barefoot in the snow
Cold can't touch her, high or low
She's blues dressed up like rock 'n' roll
Untouchable, she'll never fold*

*She'll have you running
In the wrong direction
Have you coming
For the wrong obsessions
Oh, she's gunning
For your redemption
Have you headed
Back to confession*

*Sand through fingers
Wild horse, but she's just a colt*

*Dancing barefoot in the snow
Cold can't touch her, high or low
She's blues dressed up like rock 'n' roll
Untouchable, she'll never fold*

*Walk away from the impossible
You'll never touch her
Never ease your soul*

*You're one more impossible man
Running from her
Clutching what you stole*

TURN IT OFF

*Baby, I keep trying to turn away
I keep trying to see you a different way
Baby, I keep trying
Oh, I keep trying*

*I gotta give up and turn this around
There's no way up when you're this far down
And, baby, I keep trying
Oh, I keep trying*

*I keep trying to turn this off
But, baby, you keep turning me on*

*I keep trying to change how I feel
Keep trying to tell myself that this isn't real
Baby, I keep trying
Oh, I keep trying*

*Can't take off when there's no runway ahead
And I can't get caught up in this all over again
Baby, I keep trying
Oh, I keep trying*

*I keep trying to turn it off
But, baby, you keep turning me on*

*I'm on my knees, my arms wide
I'm finding ways to stay alive
Lord knows I'm pleading, pleading
To keep this heart still beating, beating*

*I keep trying to turn it off
But, baby, you keep turning me on*

*Baby, I'm dying
But, baby, I'm trying
I can't keep selling
What you're not buying*

*So I keep trying to turn it off
And, baby, you keep turning me on*

*I'm on my knees, my arms wide
I'm finding ways to stay alive
Lord knows I'm pleading, pleading
To keep this heart still beating, beating*

*I keep trying to turn it off
But, baby, you keep turning me on*

PLEASE

Please me

Please release me

Touch me and taste me

Trust me and take me

It's not all in my head

Tell me the truth, tell me you think about me

Or, baby, you can forget about me

Please me

Please release me

Relieve me and believe me

Maybe you can redeem me

It's not all in my head

Tell me the truth, tell me you think about me

Or, baby, you can forget about me

I know that you want me

Know that you wanna hold me

Know that you wanna show me

Know that you wanna know me

Well do something and do it quick

Not much more I can stand of this

Don't act like it's all in my head

Tell me the truth, tell me if you think about me

Or, baby, can you forget about me?

Please, please, don't forget about me

Please, please, don't forget about me

YOUNG STARS

*A curse, a cross
Costing me all costs
Knotting me up in all of your knots*

*An ache, a prayer
Worn from wear
Daring what you do not dare*

*I believe you can break me
But I'm saved for the one who saved me
We only look like young stars
Because you can't see old scars*

*Tender in the places you touch
I'd offer you everything but I don't have much*

*Tell you the truth just to watch you blush
You can't handle the hit so I hold the punch*

*I believe you can break me
But I'm saved for the one who saved me
We only look like young stars
Because you can't see old scars*

*You won't give me a reason to wait
And I'm starting to feel a little proud
I'm searching for somebody lost
When you've already been found*

*You're waiting for the right mistake
But I'm not coming around
You're waiting for a quiet day
But the world is just too loud*

*I believe you can break me
But I'm saved for the one who saved me
We only look like young stars

REGRET ME

*When you look in the mirror
Take stock of your soul
And when you hear my voice, remember
You ruined me whole*

*Don't you dare sleep easy
And leave the sleepless nights to me
Let the world weigh you down*

*And, baby, when you think of me
I hope it ruins rock 'n' roll
Regret me
Regretfully*

*When you look at her
Take stock of what you took from me
And when you see a ghost in the distance
Know I'm hanging over everything*

*Don't you dare sleep easy
And leave the sleepless nights to me
Let the world weigh you down*

*And, baby, when you think of me
I hope it ruins rock 'n' roll
Regret me
Regretfully
Regret me
Regretfully*

*Don't you dare rest easy
And leave the rest of it to me
I want you to feel heavy*

*Regret me
Regret setting me free
Regret me*

I won't go easily

Regret it

Regret saying no

Regret it

Regret letting me go

One day, you'll regret it

I'll make sure of it before I go

MIDNIGHTS

*Don't remember many midnights
Forgotten some of my best insights
Can't recall some of the highest heights
But I've memorized you*

*Don't remember many daybreaks
How many sunrises have come as I lay awake
Don't dwell on my worst mistakes
But I always think of you*

*You're the thing that's crystal clear
The only thing that I hold dear
I live and die by if you're near
All other memories disappear
Without you
Without you*

Don't remember how I was then Can't keep straight where I was when

What is my name, where have I been Where did I start, where does it end

*You're the thing that's crystal clear
The only thing that I hold dear
I live and die by if you're near
All other memories disappear
Without you
Without you*

*Don't remember who I used to be
Can't recall who has hurt me
Forget the pain so suddenly
Once I'm with you*

*You're the thing that's crystal clear
The only thing that I hold dear*

*I live and die by if you're near
All other memories disappear
Without you
Without you*

A HOPE LIKE YOU

*I'm easy talk and cheap goodbyes
Second-rate in a first-class disguise
My heart sleeps soundly, don't wake it
A hope like you could break it*

*I'm lost deep in crimes and vice
Can't get to the table to grab the dice
My heart is weak, I can't take it
A hope like you could break it*

*It doesn't matter how hard I try
Can't earn some things no matter why
My heart knows we'd never make it
A hope like you could break it*

*People say love changes you
As if change and love are easy to do
My heart is calling and I can't shake it
But a hope like you could break it*

*Some things end before they start
The moment they form, they fall apart
My heart wants so badly just to say it
But a hope like you could break it*

*Told myself this story a thousand times
Can't seem to break the wants free from my mind
So much of my world goes unnamed
Some people can't be tamed*

*But maybe I should stake my claim
Maybe I should claim my stake
I've heard some hopes are worth the break*

*Yeah, maybe I should stake my claim
Maybe I should claim my stake
On the chance the hope is worth the break*

AURORA

*When the seas are breaking
And the sails are shaking
When the captain's praying
Here comes Aurora*

Aurora, Aurora

*When the lightning is cracking
And thunder is clapping
When the mothers are gasping
Here comes Aurora*

Aurora, Aurora

*When the wind is racing
And the storm is chasing
When even the preachers are pacing
Here comes Aurora*

Aurora, Aurora

*When I was drowning
Three sheets and counting
The skies cleared
And you appeared
And I said, "Here is my Aurora"*

Aurora, Aurora
